AMERICA'S LIVING LEGEND Joe DiMaggio

Personally autographed Joe DiMaggio cards

This spectacular five-card limited edition captures the historic highlights of the Yankee Clipper's legendary career. Its release during the 50th anniversary of Joe's unparalleled 56-game hitting streak in 1941 ensures that each card will be an invaluable collectible. There are 2,500 personally autographed cards. There are also 150,000 unsigned cards. You'll find them randomly inserted in SCORE's 1992 Baseball Series I, which includes 442 regular cards. The cards will feature the exciting action photography and informative text that you've come to expect from SCORE. While only some Series I packs will have a DiMaggio card, every pack will have one trivia and 16 regular cards. They'll be available in your area in late 1991. Watch for our newly designed wrappers. In card collecting, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes!

His name was Vincent Colletta, but everyone called him Vinnie. He started working for Marvel more than thirty years ago, before we were even known as Marvel. I believe we were called Atlas Publishing then. But the company name doesn't matter. What does matter is telling you what a great guy Vinnie was.

Hardly anyone except me knows this, because hardly anyone else was around at that time, but the first stories that Vinnie drew for us were romance strips. When I say "drew," I mean he did both the penciling and the inking, and he did them superbly. Now, I'm not talking ordinary, run-of-the-mill comic book romance strips. I'm talking about some of the most breathtakingly beautiful pen-and-ink illustrations you've ever seen! Vinnie treated each and every panel as if it were intended for The Louvre. I used to tell him he was putting too much work into each strip, that it wasn't necessary to make everything so lyrical, so pleasing to the eye, so incredibly perfect. After all, we were just printing 10-cent comic books. (10 cents! That'll give you an idea how long ago it was!)

But Vinnie couldn't help himself. He was a born perfectionist. If a drawing wasn't to his liking, he'd do it over and over again until he was satisfied. In the most literal sense of the word, Vincent Colletta was a truly dedicated artist.

Years later, after the romance had had run its course, Vinnie offered to put his skill to use by inking our other strips, mainly super hero thrillers. For the next few decades, his speed, his dependability, his total professionalism, saved our deadlines and our schedules more times than I can ever tell.

The bullpen and I recently learned of Vinnie's passing. We'll always regret that we never had the chance to bid him goodbye. But I want to take this opportunity to offer our most heartfelt condolences to his wife and family. Vinnie Colletta was a uniquely talented, charismatic artist who was always there when we needed him and who never gave less than his best. He was a credit to our industry. He was my friend. I miss ya, VC. So do we all.

Excelsior!

Try to remember, the kind of November ... oops, wrong month. Now we'll have to think up a new opening. Okay, so this is the month where we all chow down on turkey, mashed potatoes, stuffing, cranberry sauce, and giblets (what the heck are giblets, anyway?), eating more food in one day than we do the whole rest of the year. Then we give thanks that we only have to eat cranberry sauce once a year, and Mom puts the whole thing in the freezer for a month so we can eat the same dinner again at Christmas.

Here at Mighty Marvel, we have a lot to be thankful for this year. For starters, our head honcho (and head hipster) Terry Stewart initiated our first ever company picnic this past August. The picnic was a huge success, with plenty of food and drink for all, and fun and games galore (with fewer casualties than we would've expected). Among the activities were softball, football, and volleyball (Marveloids will play any sport that ends in the word "ball"), with the highlight of the day being an impromptu wet t-shirt contest! Everyone is looking forward to next year's picnic, especially Ant-Man, who said he plans on bringing lots of friends next time!

The Marvel softball team also had a lot to be thankful for this year. (Actually, there were TWO Marvel softball teams this year — so many people wanted to play that it was necessary to form two teams: the Punishers and the Hellraisers. But then the two teams merged about halfway through the season.) Both teams had largely unimpressive track records, but the season ended on a high note with a victory over arch-rival, the DC Bullets. DC had won the first two games against Marvel this year, so it was a particularly satisfying victory for our side as we crushed them in a devastating 8-0 shut out.

Team captains this year were neo-hipster Paul Becton, and hipster-wanna-be Evan Skolnick. (Not the easily-bruisable Evan, "This was the first game of the season in which I did not bleed." MVP's for the final DC game were Fabian Nicieza (who thinks it's square to be hip), ex-hipster Craig Kunaschik of the direct sales department, who pounded out a three-run homer, and assistant editor John Lewandowski, who was a hipster when being a hipster wasn't considered hip.)

After the game, assistant editor (and intercontinental-hipster) Richard Ashford and his lovely wife Carol Baird (who's so hip she's got a different last name from her husband) threw a party at their digs in New York's Upper West Side. Players from the Marvel and DC teams showed up, and a good time was had by all. Truly it can be said that everyone came away a winner on that day (of course, the Marvel team were the real winners, and the DC team went crying home to their mothers! So there!)

The kids of the St.Mary's recreational center in the South Bronx also have a lot to be thankful for this year — their building now sports a huge mural, filled with Marvel characters, painted by residents of the community. The mural was part of a project which takes kids off the streets and gives them a creative outlet. Bob Budiansky, who is a hipster from way back, helped the kids out on the project, ably assisted by demi-hipster (and everybody's sweetheart) David Wohl, whose return to staff was brutally ignored by this page several months back. Also assisting in this project was DEATHLOK artist and ultra-hipster Denys Cowan.

There are some thankful new fathers in the Marvel family these days — suspected hipster, GHOST RIDER writer Howard Mackie with his lovely wife Deborah Higley, just brought forth into this world a baby girl named Alexandra. Triple-threat SPIDER-MAN hipster Todd McFarlane and his fabulous wife Wanda Kolomyjek just joined forces to produce a baby girl named Cyan. And mega-hipster slash inker Mark McKenna and his vivacious wife Kathy produced their latest creative endeavor — a little bundle of joy named Erin Marie. All of these babies arrived on schedule, which means they have absolutely no future in this business!

One guy who is not too thankful this year is MARVEL AGE assistant editor Mike Lackey, who wouldn't know a hipster if one came up and bit him on the nose. Mike is famous for having the smallest desk at Marvel. Well, recently Mike moved downstairs to the ninth floor when MARVEL AGE received a new editor, cowgirl/hipster Renée Witterstaetter. With the move came an even smaller desk for Mike! At this rate, we may just take Mike's desk away, and he can put a board on his lap and use that! Look at the bright side, Mike — at least you're not sitting on milk crates!

Be here next month for more hyper-hip pronouncements and foolerah. You know what they say, "When the going gets hip, the hip get hopping!"

Dear Web-slingers,

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! Thanks for bringing back Venom! He is one of my all time favorite characters, and I'm not sure why. Maybe it is his warped sense of humor or maybe it's just his utter evilness. By the way, I've been meaning to write in and ask you, what is this thing Venom has with eating Spider-Man's brain? Is he after extra protein or what? Don't get me wrong, I like it! Is it safe to assume that you are setting up a major rumble between these two? Also, my friend and I have a dispute going about how strong Spider-Man's web is. He is convinced that it can hold Thor. Is this true? Speaking about Goldlocks, any ideas in the works for a guest appearance by him? (He's another favorite). Thanks for taking time to read my letter. So until Venom becomes a gourmet, Make Mine Marvel.

Dear Danny the Web-weaver,

Did you realize that this is the eighth straight issue of ASM to top the one before it? Such a glorious procession is rarely seen anymore, in these days of up-and-down quality.

Take ASM #346 for example. The cover was beautiful -- to say the least. The art all throughout the comic defied description. Expressions of fright, anger, rage, and satisfaction were all unbelievable! Never has any pencil been able to depict emotions as well as Enk Larsen.

"Nuff about the art. David Michelinie has done it once again! "Elliptical Pursuit" was 99-44/100% pure ecstasy. He has gone from merely great to near-perfect in one month!

In most comics the last page usually resolves loose ends or has everybody smile and live happily ever after. ASM #346 gave me massive multiple heart attacks. That was one of the most painful cliffhangers that I have ever read.

Micah Arnold
Binghamton, NY 13903

If you checked out Spider-Man's entry in the OFFICIAL HANDBOOK OF THE MARVEL UNIVERSE DELUXE EDITION, Scott, you would discover that the tensile strength of Spidey's webs is 120 pounds per square millimeter of cross section. What that means in layman's terms is that, yes, Spidey's webs can hold Thor if he uses enough webbing -- but for how long is anybody's guess.

You weren't the only one who found our cliffhanger a trifle gut-wrenching, Micah. Witness the next brief but succinct missive...

Dear Spider-Crew,

I just got through reading AMAZING SPIDER-MAN #346. It was getting good at the end and then I saw "To be continued." ARE YOU TRYING TO DRIVE ME

NUTS??!! Couldn't you have just made it a special double-sized issue?

Trent Smith
1210 Elberta
Houston, TX 77051

Dear Web-heads,

After a couple of years in which I did not buy any comics, a few months ago I decided to start collecting again. I just finished reading AMAZING SPIDER-MAN #346 and felt the need to write. This is my first look at Venom and I must say, he is awesome! How Spidey beat him before and how he will win again is beyond me! I'm sure Michelinie and Larsen will bring us another great classic.

One last thing, I'd just like to say welcome back to Danny Fingerth. It's good to see his name in these pages again. So until Venom visits the dentist for root canal, Make Mine Marvel!

NEXT ISSUE: In two weeks, "Round Robin" concludes! With Spidey, Punisher, Moon Knight, Night Thrasher, Nova, and Darkhawk! And don't miss the three page gatefold wraparound cover! It's Spider greatness at its height. Don't miss it! (Like we had to tell you.)

GET YOUR MIND BACK IN THE GUTTER.

Time to get crude and rude, dude. 'Cause Shredder's nabbed April O'Neil again in Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles™ II Back from the Sewers.™ Konami's™ new bodacious shell bound shell shocker for Game Boy.

- Two megs memory puts major screenage in your face with bigger characters and cooler action.
- 6 totally tasty levels plus 5 bonus pizza collecting stages.
- Attempt to release captured Turtles in the most excellent rescue levels.
- All new feature lets you choose a level of difficulty.
- Walk, talk, jump, climb, skateboard and surf through downtown sewers, abandoned buildings, subways, highways, the Technodrome and other areas o' pain.
- Righteous reporter April is missing serious air time, dude. So get slicing and maybe Shredder will choke 'n croak for good.
Not!

We Took Some Of The Worst Garbage On TV And Turned It Into A Great Video Game.

You've seen the show, now play the game.

The new video game based on the thrilling adventures of Captain Planet™ and The Planeteeers™. Instead of just watching this superhero stop pollution, end ivory hunting and save the dolphins, now you can actually help him. Using the Planeteeers' special powers of Earth, Fire, Water, Wind and Heart, you and Captain Planet will use the Geo-Cruiser™, Eco-Copter™ and Eco-Sub™ to battle hideous villains like Verminous Skumm™ and Sly Sludge™. 10 challenging levels of play. Get your copy today, and put a stop to this mess.

Available for NES.

Available at Babbages, Captron, Childworld, Electronic Boutique, Fred Meyer, K-Mart, Kay-Bee Toy, Sears, Software Etc., Target and Toys R Us.
